

Things to do now the desktop's unstable. Fuck my life.

- Play games on the PS3.
- Watch YouTube on the Chromebook or PS3.
- Watch Netflix on the Chromebook or PS3.
- Watch MLP:FIM on New Lunar Republic on the living room media center PC.
- Listen to music from YouTube on the Chromebook.
- Use my Chromebook in the dining or living room.
- Play games on the Gameboy in the dining or living room.
- Read Fimfiction in bed on the Chromebook.

tl;dr - PS3, Chromebook, Gameboy, media center PC.

I'm having to adjust my standards and expectations, re-teach myself what I feel is good enough.

Reasonable ideas to improve things:

- Consider getting a Sony PSP 3000 or 2000.
